ON SUFFRAGE LAW SUGAR SITUATION FORBIDS OHIO VOTE PIPING ROCK SHOW Court's Action Enjoins Referendum Antis Sought. COLUMBUS, Ohio, Sept. 21.—Judge Frank Rathmell of the Common Pleas Court to-day issued a temporary injunction which would prohibit a referendum vote in Ohio this November on the Reynolds Presidential suffrage law. The court knocked out petitions calling for a referendum vote from twenty-two counties, where the boards of elections failed to certify to the Secretary of State that the petitions were in compilance with the law.

Anti-suffragists immediately announced they would return the faulty petitions to the twenty-two counties for proper certification. In case this is proper certification. In case this is done the suffragists will attack the pedone the suffragists will attack the pe-titions again, contending there is no authority for an amended certification. To call a referendum 70,444 signatures are required. To-day's court action re-duced the number of valid signatures to Relief cannot be expected from the Western beet crop before the middle of October, when the crop commences to move to market. Many refiners are withdrawing from

A canvass of the large sugar houses in the downtown district yesterday was a gloomy stroll through an unlimited field of pessimism. The sugar men simply do not know what they are gosimply do not know what they are go-ing to do about the situation, and they say so frankly. They admit, too, that the blame for the situation is partly on their own shoulders.

'That about explains how we feel, said one man yesterday, and he ex-hibited a clipping from a conservative trade journal. "The situation is becoming very scute and is causing much uneasiness in the trade," it said. Price re-adjustments do not figure extensively in The maximum of 7.25 cents for beet sugar, cane basis, at seaboard refining points, the price agreed upon by the Western producers and the Food Admip-istration Board, is considered by sugar men here a very fair one. American cane sugar representatives are expected to take similar action within the next already agreed to a 714 cent price or its equivalent, but this is not regarded as inal until the decision is unanimous. There are several ways out of the dilemma in which the sugar refiners now find themselves. One is by using pres-ent stocks of raw sugar very sparingly in part time operations and by parcel-ing out the present stock of refined ing out the present stock of refined sugar to cover the most of the trade. The other is to await the arrival of the beet sugar crop now maturing in the West, which should be available by the niddle of October.

Baltimons, Md., Sept. 21.—A blasted romance figured in the police court at Laurel to-day when Mrs. Ines Sprague Stiness of Paris and Narragansett, R. I., was fined $25 and costs for driving her automobile in a speedy and reckless manner on the Washington Boulevard on Thursday night.

A triple collision was the result of the adventure in which Mrs. Stiness and Capt. Pardinel of the French army played the leading roles. When the collision occurred Mrs. Stiness and Capt. Pardinel were on their way to be married, with Mrs. Stiness at the steering wheel like a female Lochinvar.
